NOTICE.

Stolen, or strayed from my plantation, on the 6th. of May, 1866, a large RED AND WHITE COW with keen horns; she is marked with a smooth crop in the left ear, and a hole in the right. The cow is six years old, and has left a calf four weeks old.

I will pay a liberal reward for any information that will enable me to get her again. I live one mile from Morrisville depot.

A NEW PAPER.

I propose to commence at an early day, the publication of a Daily Paper, in the City of Raleigh, to be called the "CITY INDEX." It will be published on the plan of a Penny paper but not quite so cheap for the present. It will be delivered daily by Carriers, and must be paid for weekly.

The INDEX will be published as a news paper, and will have nothing to do with parties, politics or politicians. It will give the latest news, general and commercial; local and State items; poetry, anecdotes, marriages and deaths.

The terms of subscription and advertising will be put at the lowest notch, and will be published in the first issue of the paper.

WHO WANTS A PIANO?

SEVERAL Patrons of the Concord Female College have requested my aid in securing good for their use. This has induced me to make arrangements with some of the best manufacturers, which enable me to furnish instruments of the first class at reduced prices. I can save each purchaser from $40 to $100. Price lists of the manufacturers will be sent to those who desire them, to aid them in making selections.

When selections shall have been made the money can be sent to me, at my expense, by the Southern Express, and a Piano will be shipped to the Depot the purchaser may designate. Each Piano sold will be fully warranted. Address me at Statesville, N. C.

TO THIS CELEBRATED SAFE was awarded the GOLD MEDAL, at the World's Fair in London, in 1851.

NOTICE.—This celebrated Fire Proof safe is no longer made and sold by SILAS C. HERRING, his license to make and sell them having expired.

The thousands of Certificates from Merchants, Bankers and Mechanics of all trades, that have been given in favor of this the only true "SALAMANDER" renders it useless for the subscribers to multiply words in its favor, as full thirty thousand of "WILDER'S PATENT SALAMANDER SAFES," have been manufactured and sold in the United States; and, in almost every large fire that has taken place during the last seventeen years, these Safes have been subjected to the severest tests, and not one of the "Genuine Salamanders" has ever been destroyed.

Safes sold at New York price, with the freight to Wilmington added. No commission charged in Wilmington. We are prepared to take orders for these celebrated Safes. Samples can be seen at our office in a few days.

SALISBURY BRASS BAND

REORGANIZED 1st January, 1866, on a larger scale than formerly, under the direction of its former tutor, W. H. NEAVE, who was also chief music writer and Band Teacher in Gen. Lee's army. He will be assisted in leadship and direction by his brother, Ed. Neave, leader during the entire late war of Gen. Lee's best and most favorite band, viz: 4th N. C. The Band is composed of the best members of the old Band, together with the best members of several of the fine Bands trained by W. H. Neave, in camps, who have moved to Salisbury from all parts in the State to follow their respective vocations and continue the study and practice of music. This Band will be a permanent institution for all State and festive occasions, and will equal the best to be found in the world, if sustained by those desiring a fine order of Brass and String music; if not, it must go down after this year.

W. H. Neave is also agent for the celebrated Dodworth Brass instruments, proved and warranted to him, and by him to others; also, the most pleasing, effective and popular Piano music, selected by his friends, H. B. Dodworth and Kent Botsford, New York. For beginners, medium players, and advanced musicians, no trash for either.

Music composed and arranged to order for Parlor, Orchestral and Brass Band use for any kind and number of instruments.

Salisbury has been selected for Musical Headquarters for its central position.

N. B. Mere letters of enquiry, for musical information, but with no view to business with Mr. Neave or Band, must contain two postage stamps.

Tone of the Southern Press.

We have heretofore mentioned that, so far as our observation has extended, there are but three papers in the South,—two published in this City and one in Alexandria, Va.,—that are not emphatic and indignant in their repudiation of the Radical plan of re-construction, so-called. The degrading character of its conditions, the unforgiving and vindictive spirit which pervades it, and the ferocious temper which marked the progress of the discussion upon its merits in the House of Representatives, have naturally impelled the press to speak of it and its authors in terms of no measured denunciation. We are warned that such a course, upon our part, is calculated to do us still further injury, and to provoke to an intenser extent the fury and malignity of our enemies. A correspondent of the Richmond Enquirer, writing from Washington, has a word of caution upon the same subject.—The writer urges the adverse use which the party opposed to according our rights makes of every irritating utterance on the part of the Southern press and Southern people. The same few papers in our midst, which have no word of protest against the schemes of the Congress, are the first to catch up any imprudent or rash expressions of their Southern cotemporaries and parade them before Jacobin eyes as indubitable evidences of disloyalty and "treason."

While we concede that there is every reason why, under the anomalous and extraordinary circumstances by which we are surrounded, we should endeavor to observe discretion, and refrain from intemperate words and acts, it would be an exaction, of which fallen humanity is barely capable, to require or to expect that we should sit down quietly and composedly under the enormous wrongs that are sought to be inflicted upon our devoted heads. If, therefore, as the Enquirer suggests, we should be incited to irritating demonstrations, or provoked into recriminating words, great allowance is due to us. And we must not be condemned where we are right, simply because our good may be evil spoken of by the Radicals. This would be to imitate the magistrate' court, that threatened to send a young lawyer to jail, not because there was anything amiss in what he had said, but because it had the effect of making the old lawyer opposed to him swear.

The Enquirer's views upon this subject are so manly, and, at the same time, so judicious and sensible, that we take pleasure in appending them:

"In fact, the Southern people are in a peculiar condition. It has been remarked that one of the disadvantages of being poor is, that a poor man is required to be perfect. No allowance is made for his failures, as in the case of the rich. Something of the same sort is seen in our present political position. The politicians, the presses, the statesmen of the North, may indulge in the wildest excesses of speech, and the grossest violations of duty, and may display the most violent and bloodthirsty spirit against a people whom they have already ruined; all this, if not right, is at least allowable. But if a Southern man, stung by a sense of injustice, and aroused by the insults which are daily belched at us, failed for once to measure and weigh his words, his indiscretion is a grief to his friends, and goes into the scrap-books of his enemies.

It is difficult to tell what course on our part would best please those who are demanding justice for us at the North. It would not do for us to seem indifferent to the struggle; and yet to declare our interest in it may give capital to the enemy. We are somewhat in the situation described by the working-man at a late reform meeting in England. Speaking for his class this man, who spoke throughout with remarkable shrewdness, said:

"They tell us that if we wish to get a vote we must show ourselves worthy of it by acting the part of good citizens, and obeying the laws.—Well, sir, this advice we have acted on, and for these many years past the workingmen of England have shown themselves as loyal, as peaceful, and as orderly as if they had had blue blood in their veins. But lo and behold! after we have done the very things they advised us to do, these men turn round and tell the country that we do not care to have a vote, because we are not enthusiastic enough. If we wish to be received within the pale of the Constitution in any other capacity than that of tax-payers, we must have no rows, no riots, no threatenings, such as forced the last Reform bill into law; and then, because we take the hint, they point to our peaceable attitude as a proof that we are content with our present exclusion. Verily there is no pleasing some men."

We shall urge upon our people to fulfill, as far as possible, both the conditions referred to in the above; to be peaceful, orderly and loyal, and at the same time to be attentive to their rights and enthusiastic in seeking them. We will try to give no advantage to our enemies, and to impose no burden on our friends; but the former have no right to take unbounded license to themselves, and to hold us to the standard of infallibility merely because we are weak and sorely tried; and our friends must not condemn us merely because the Radicals swear. They must be strong for the right."

MRS. DAVIS is said to be receiving every kindness and attention from the U. S. officials at Fortress Monroe. It is such facts as that, which go to the hearts of the Southern people, and stimulate the growth of friendly feeling. We trust they will come more frequently.

The London Fun publishes a cartoon representing President Johnson and Justice. "Stand firm," says justice, "I am with you." The President holds in his hand a sword, upon which is inscribed the word "Veto."

The largest amount of revenue paid by the British people in any one year was $870,000,000. The amount which the people of the United States will pay this year will be $540,000,000.

Radical Consistency.

The declaration was repeatedly made by the Northern press, during the progress of the war, that the masses of the Southern people were true to the Union, and that they had been deluded into revolution by a few politicians, aristocrats and slave-owners.

Even now, when the repeal of the test oath is urged, or its modification insisted upon, as proposed by the Secretary of the Treasury and the Postmaster General, in order to enable the Government to find the requisite number of persons for the Federal offices in the Southern States, the Radicals boldly affirm that it is useless to do either, since there are thousands upon thousands of good and loyal men in the South who can take and fill them.

But when, for political purposes, they want to exclude the Southern delegations from Congress, and desire to cover President Johnson with obloquy, because of his generous policy, they change their tune and declare that the South is a nest of traitors; that it contains only a handful of loyal Union men, and, even, that no Northern man's life is, for a moment, safe in our midst.

Thus, according as it is convenient to their fell designs, the South is either full of loyal or full of disloyal men!

It Won't Do.

The Reconstruction Committee have already found that they have overreached themselves, and that one of their plans for humiliating the South is a dead failure. The Constitutional Amendment proposed by them provides that all officers of the Confederate States above a certain rank shall be disqualified from holding office; and that all who voluntarily participated in the rebellion shall be deprived of the right of suffrage. In the discussion on this point in the House, the question was raised, that those who had taken the benefits of the amnesty, or who had received pardons from the President, were restored to all their civil rights, and released from all responsibilities of their action during the war. This point was admitted by Thad. Stevens, who stated that a pardon or the amnesty wiped away the crime, and that these classes could not and would not be reached by the provision. This opinion, it is said, created quite a sensation among the Radicals in the House. It blasted one of their fondest hopes. A large proportion of the people of the South have taken advantage of the amnesty, and many men, whom it was desirable to persecute, have been specially pardoned.

There is no doubt that this construction is correct. It is a principle of law which cannot be disregarded. There are still many, however, to whom the restriction will apply, but suppose that, before the amendment is finally adopted, the President should proclaim a general amnesty? It would be a dead letter, and would only serve as a standing and perpetual monument of the fanaticism and infamy of those who conceived and those who supported it.

Antecedents of the Southern Radicals.

In our analysis of Mr. Truman's report to the President on the state of feeling in the South, we omitted one paragraph which the so-called Union men in the South ought by all means to read. Mr. Truman said:

"I cannot say, that when the Confederacy went down, there was not in all its borders a citizen who did not yield it so much allegiance as he ever gave to any Government; but I do not hesitate to declare that there were not five prominent politicians, still remaining within it, who could truly and conscientiously declare that they had not given it, first or last, their sympathy. It has furnished me an interesting branch of historical study to look up the antecedents of those men who, when our troops made their appearance, were forward in their professions of unwavering Unionism. Alas, for political human nature! Scarcely one of them but had either accepted an office under the Confederacy, or had signified their willingness to do so."

What is it?

The Chicago Tribune (Radical) strikes at the very heart of truth when it asserts that—

"So long as any public grievance remains to be redressed—so long as any public wrong remains to be righted—it is the mission of the Republican party to redress that grievance, and to right that wrong. Until then there can be no more dangerous condition for the party than that of inertia. Give us something which looks like forward movement, and we shall move with an irresistible impulse to victory."

Inaction is death to Radicalism. It is essentially aggressive and destructive. The same everywhere, North and South, it is the genius of change without reform. It courts opposition, and adopts plans, not from the good that may arise, but that inanition may not paralyze its energies. There must ever be "other worlds to conquer," or it dies after a drunken revel. In days of peace Brownlow's natural tendencies to destructiveness developed themselves in assaults upon individual character. He waged wars in morals and politics, and always conducted desolating, destructive campaigns. Roses never bloomed along his pathway, or love, or charity. He is an impersonation of the vices of Radicalism confessed by the Tribune.

Men of this sort are destroyers of peace.—They held the country powerless during five years of intense delight to Radicalism, and now, even now, when all their bloody deeds and unhallowed acts and crimes and follies have monuments in each hillock that rises above slaughtered thousands, they deem their work unfinished. Their hearts "yearn for another forward movement." "Inertia is death to Radicalism."

Men who adhere, naturally, to a party of this character, whatever its course, are always disorganizers and destroyers of law and government. They can only live in a tempest. If all the winds may not be turned loose from caves of Æolus, a very little storm serves to electrify them, but the wider and more destructive its scope, the more delightful to the world of Radicalism. These Radicals are storm-petrels which gather about the ship of State only when it drives madly on to ruin. When waves subside, and the tempest has exhausted its fury, they are seen no more.

Radicalism is a mania for violent motion—a disease of a maniac that abhors repose—a horrible distortion of all that patriotism teaches or that wisdom commands. The Tribune has studied the Greek maxim, gnothi seauton. Excessive action, of a truth, is the vital essence of brainless Radicalism.—Memphis (Tenn.) Bul.

For the Sentinel.

"Twelve months ago, yesterday, we, the Senior Editor, were summoned to Washington by President Johnson to consult" (or be consulted, which?) "on the state of affairs in North Carolina. * * * We went. We saw the President frequently, had full conversations with him, and returned with our commission as Provisional Governor" (Veni, vidi, vici.) "We did not seek the place. It sought us."—Standard, 12*th*.

Thus pithily, but feelingly, Messrs. Editors, writes your honored cotemporary, of the uncere monious and miraculous manner in which greatness was thrust upon him.

Some people are said to be born to greatness. He was not. Others achieve greatness. Such was not his fate. He only waited with exemplary patience, and lo! greatness was thrust upon him.

The Governorship had been chasing its victim for years. The Charlotte Convention first wanted him to be Governor; but he would not touch it, and generously placed the onerous honor on the shoulders of the lamented Ellis, who died in harness—as might have been expected.

Next, jolly Zeb. Vance, by way of a joke, probably, tried to force the crown on the reluctant head of the Great Statesman. But, with characteristic cunning, mingled with a beautiful modesty, the glittering bauble was pushed aside, and adroitly placed on Zebulon's own brow—thus turning the tables on that famous old joker. (N. B. He had to run away and eventually paid a visit to Washington, too,—being thereunto specially invited.)

Then our own Quaker born Jonathan stretched out his hand, holding the tiara, and essayed to drop it on his head. But it was no go. The skittish colt, coy as usual, could not be caught, and went prancing over the meadows free as the winds, and the would be Warwick was doomed, by way of penalty for his indiscretion, to be the fractional Governor hims-lf.

The Fates, however, had decreed, in solemn counsel, that our hero should be great, in spite of himself, and caused him to be summoned to Washington city. There the deed was done. By what potent legerdemain this reluctance was overcome it boots not now to enquire. Doubtless, there was a hard struggle to escape the cruel honor. Three times, at least, like the great Julius, he may be presumed to have thrust it aside. He did, by no manner of means, seek the place. But, by all manner of means, the place had pertinaciously sought him,—and found him at last. He was far away from his home and his friends,—helpless and forlorn.—The gubernatorial honors had been after him for years, with a very sharp stick, giving him no rest, dogging his heels wherever he went.—They at last took him at disadvantage, in a foreign land, practised a skillful coup de main, surrounded him and took him captive! Not being able to dodge any longer, he totally caved in, and surrendered at discretion. The next morning, after a sleepless night, thinking on the pros and cons, he appeared at the White House, which had been the scene of so many "full and free conversations" with the President, and grasping "friend Andy," as he endearingly called him, by both hands, exclaimed, with big tears filling his eyes, "well, if I must, I must, but I mortally hate it." It seemed to have been pre-ordained, that he should be Governor, somewhere and somehow, and he could not escape. So a Governor he was finally determined to be,—if it burst him. Fate had fixed it, and would have it so. He could only submit; but he desired it to be distinctly understood that he did not seek the place. As always, heretofore, it sought him. So, in due time, he returned to rule North Carolina, with his commission as Provisional Governor, (here an audible snore from Old Rip Van Winkle,) and these wretched attempts to thrust honors on his blushing brow, amounting to downright persecution for many years, are over for a season.

There is music in the sound of Governor.—Those who are very reluctant to become Governor soon begin to delight in the title—and little offence seems to be given sometimes, if there be a frequent repetition thereof. The "iteration" seemeth not to be very "damnable." It even tickleth the honored auricles. Why, in a short congratulatory epistle from John Rosemond, to the Ex-Provisional Governor, in lauding his many excellencies, which short epistle may be found side by side, in the same sheet, with the article herein noticed, the magical and musical word "Governor," addressed to himself, is repeated either fourteen or fifteen times. The sound seems not to be so horrible after all, even subject to the Provisional drawback.

"But behold the change!" saith the writer. "Then, the State was submissive and ready for any terms the Government might impose. * * * Then, the test oath, hard as it is on the great body of the Unionists, was respected as the law of the land. * * * Then, the prime authors of our woes, the secessionists and latter-day war men, were, to all appearances, unconditional Unionists." He might have gone on and filled up the measure of the glory which filled our old State on the 11th day of May, 1865, by adding triumphantly: Then, a great man was ruler over our Israel! and neither irreverent youngster, nor man with the hoary head, dared to snap finger in the face of Provisional greatness. Then, the damsels even could not venture to peep through their fans at the amiable face of His Excellency, the Provisional, except in due orthodox fashion. Then, the boys were hushed and mute, and trembled in presence of overshadowing greatness. There were at least two happy individuals in those good times. The one going a little before, and the other a little behind, representing a beautifully responsive and obedient echo.

But the individual herein alluded to bitterly laments that things are not now in the same condition as in May of last year. The memory of that time is dear to his patriotic heart. It is evidently his little millenium. Could it only have lasted! It may be true that some people may be so unpatriotic as never to wish to see again that precious season. Thousands upon thousands of victorious troops in our midst, and all around us, may seem more imposing than desirable to some who have no great fancy for such military display. There may be, some so unreasonable now as to prefer the present quiet state of things—and dare to speak of them who then only dared to speak in bated breath, or submissively chose to say nothing.—They remember that day "then," when informers had power over our best citizens, and sought to purchase safety to their own precious carcasses, by sneaking delation and by spotting those who had honestly performed what they deemed to be their duty to the State, in her day of trial. These men had before "then" been objects of scorn and contempt by sneaking out of the service by most cowardly stratagems, or by open desertion, and then sought to wipe out the old stains by officious and outrageous zeal in the new service. There are many in North Carolina who would not welcome a return to that reign of terror, even for the purpose of "making the State submissive and ready for any terms the government might impose." They might object to it, now, if it should work the miracle of making the test oath respected and loved, or succeed in harmonizing our whole population into unconditional Unionists. Y. Y.

NEW YORK, Sunday May 13.—There was one death from cholera at Quarantine yesterday.

The Reception of the Irish "Head Centre" in New York—He Makes a Speech.

James Stephens, the Head Centre of the Irish Republican Brotherhood, arrived in New York, from France, on Thursday, in the steamship Napoleon III. His arrival seems to have revived, for the moment at least, the Fenian excitement in that city, and the papers minutely detail the incidents attending his reception. One of them says:

Mr. Stephens was met on his arrival by committee of the Fenian Brotherhood, and by thousands of Irishmen, who were anxiously waiting his arrival. He proceeded from the wharf to the Metropolitan Hotel, followed by the crowd, where he will remain for the present. The news of his arrival spread with telegraphic speed throughout the city, and one hour afterwards at least four thousand persons assembled in front of the hotel, endeavoring to catch a glimpse of this prominent personage. Mr. Stephens remained in his room conversing with the committee and receiving the calls of such friends as he chose to meet. In a familiar conversation with the reporters of the press, Mr. Stephens gave a few hints of the object of his mission, and confidently asserted that the Irish army would fight on their own soil ere the expiration of the present year. The committee of arrangements expect the common council to give Mr. Stephens a reception. There will also be a grand demonstration at Jones' Woods, when the Head Centre will fully explain the object of his mission to this country.

At a late hour on Thursday night, Mr. Stephens was serenaded at his hotel, and in response addressed the large crowd present as follows:

Countrymen: Though finding you broken into parties, and your faith, perhaps, somewhat shaken, I still expect that you will work on earnestly and energetically to the end. ["We will! We will!" Cheers.] I not only expect it, but am convinced that you will fulfill your promise. [Cheers.] All power is with the people, and my faith in the people is unshaken.—[Cheers.] You have the power to accomplish your object, and you will do it. ["We will!"] The men at home have done their part. [A voice—"We are ready to do ours."] The power of your friends in Ireland is as strong as ever.—All the action that the government put forth has not weakened it a jot. [Immense cheering.] We want all good men to enter the party. We want such a combined power as will enable us to act with our full force against the enemy.—Say nothing against any person, say nothing against any party, until proved to be guilty.—We have a great deal of work before us. In a few days I shall be able to give you words of cheer. [A voice—"Have your weapon ready."] I hope I shall be able to reconcile the differences that have sprung up among you. [Voice—"It was not our fault."] I have faith in the people. You must give over party quarrels and dissensions. I have come here to accomplish that object.

The committee which has been appointed have been collecting the facts, and when I have seen the result of their labors, I shall be able, I believe, to unite you in harmony and strength. Can I count on you? [Cheers, "Yes, yes."] The prisons of Ireland are full of your brothers. I have left Ireland and have come to America because I was invited. I was told the organization wanted me. I have come over in answer to the call, resolved to act in the largest spirit of conciliation, and work as if nothing had happened, to do justice to all parties and pick the good men. (Cries, "Sweeney, Sweeney.") I use no bitter word toward any man. I only ask you to excuse me this evening from any further remarks. (Cheers.)

Brothers, I thank you sincerely for your compliment. I now bid you good night, and request you kindly to retire to your homes in the hope that you will become entirely united and consolidated in good feeling. (Cheers.)

The band played "The Wearing of the Green," and "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Mr. Stephens retired to his room and the crowd slowly dispersed.

James Stephens is a man of fine presence, though rather under medium stature. He is apparently about forty-five years of age. His speech is that of a man of considerable cultivation, and the unmistakable brogue proclaims him an Irishman. He is accompanied from Ireland by Lt. William Smith O'Brien, M. Ed. O'Brien, J. M. Gibbon and Thomas Moore.

Important Fenian movements, consequent on the arrival of the great Head Centre, are expected in Buffalo. It is reported there that General Meade and his troops are ordered to proceed there immediatly. The United States steamer Michigan, which was about going to Erie, has been ordered to remain at Buffalo.

From the Baltimore Commercial.

So far as Maryland is in the case, no one need suppose that she is going to be dragged at the chariot wheels of Sumner and Stevens, no matter at whose behest, amongst her local politicians. Whilst the war lasted, the Union party of the State went in heartily for every measure intended to keep the State out of the so-called Southern Confederacy, and successfully. But the war once over, our people never intended to perpetuate strife—to arrange for the continuance of the conflict through years to come.—Join hands as all may to repair the evils which have been brought upon the State and country, the mass of this and the next generation will have the costly penalties to pay for the strife already suffered. If we would have the South aid in the material "reconstruction" needful for the country, can we bind that people hand and foot, and then expect anything from them?

Let us suppose the impossibility of seeing the constitutional amendment in question ratified. Let us suppose the "eleven" effectually disfranchised. Would it not have the effect of creating a regular exodus from the territory under ban, for would any, who could get away, consent to live there without representation, with a future dependent alone on the begrudged concessions of rivals and avowed enemies? Letting in Colorado without the stipulation for "universal suffrage," would the people of the doomed States consent to see the dagger they most dread suspended over them in all the future, and although no new rebellion might have to be dreaded by the nation, would not the dry rot of sectional decay at length invade other portions of the nationality?

Injustice towards any portion of this country is injustice towards all; and the Government cannot afford to drag a crippled limb after it for the space of "three years," if it would maintain that prestige and prosperity it was favored with in the past. If the radical leaders cannot see this, others,—they may rest assured,—do; and what is more, they have the nerve and the determination to act upon it. The triumph in passing the famous "third section," the other night, was nothing really upon which to congratulate themselves; for as in that old case chronicled in Roman history—"another such victory would ruin them."

The Chippewa Indians have ceded to the United States all the lands heretofore claimed by them, and more especially that at or near Lake Vermillion, as a reservation.

The New Orleans Picayune says that petroleum of great purity, and in large quantities, has been found in Angeline, Trinity and Nacogdoches counties, Eastern Texas.

OUR WOUNDED.—The love and reverence exhibited by our ladies everywhere, for the memory of our dead heroes, strikingly displays the nobleness and tenderness of the women of the South, and will win for them, if possible, increased respect and admiration. But there is another object not less worthy of their labors of love; we mean the maimed and scarred veterans of the late conflict.

Many of them lost their all in defence of the South, their homes fell a prey to the flames that lit the pathway of invading armies, and now, crippled and helpless, they stand beside their ruined hearth-stones, destitute even of the limbs which would enable them to earn bread for their dear ones.

The Legislature of North Carolina has very properly and justly ordered that each North Carolina soldier who lost a limb in the defence of his State shall be provided with the best possible artificial substitute for the missing member, and we hope that our next Assembly will be equally thoughtful, equally just.—Rich. Enquirer.

THE NORFOLK MEN ON THE UNDERWOOD GRAND JURY.—It is not necessary for our purpose that we should mention names. We therefore omit them, and make the general declaration, the truth of which will be attested by every respectable man in this community, that so far as the Norfolk men are concerned who are on that jury, a more unreliable set, with one or possibly two exceptions, could not be found in this or any other community.

Three of them are deserters from the Confederate ranks. Butler mitigated his infamy in this community by fixing perjury on one of them. And another, seeking a "lower depth" after he turned Union man, went into the business of running blockade goods into the Confederacy; and yet, as a juryman, took the oath that he had never given "aid and comfort" to the South. —Norfolk Virginian, 12*th*.

A NEVER FAILING REMEDY FOR CHOLERA.—The following extract from the letter of a clergyman to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, presents a very simple, and, he says, effectual preventive of cholera, as well as a remedy of great power:

The preventive is simple—a teaspoonful of powdered charcoal taken three or four times a week, in a cup of coffee or other liquid, in the morning. When attacked with cholera, a mixture of an ounce of charcoal, an ounce of laudanum, an ounce of brandy or other spirits may be given as follows, after being well shaken: A teaspoonful every five minutes. In half an hour I have known this effectually to relieve and stay the disease. As the patient becomes better the mixture may be given at longer intervals. I have known a patient in the blue stage, and collapsed, perfectly recovered in a few hours.

The charcoal was tried as a preventive on a large plantation in the Mauritius, and but a single individual out of eight hundred was lost.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

The following Preamble and Resolutions were adopted by the Quarterly Conference of Fayetteville Circuit, April 21st, 1866:

Whereas, Almighty God in His wisdom, has taken from our midst our dearly beloved Brother and Presiding Elder Rev. DAVID B. NICHOLSON, so long a comfort to his brethren, a gift to the world and a pillar of the Church: Therefore,

Resolved, That while we submit to this dispensation of Providence with Christian resignation we nevertheless feel that, by it, we have lost a kind friend and esteemed brother, Methodism a strong advocate, and the Church one of her best and most useful ministers.

Resolved, That we fondly cherish the memory of our well beloved brother Nicholson will strive to obey his precepts, follow his example and meet him in Heaven.

Resolved, That we offer our condolence and sympathy to his bereaved and afflicted family, and that we earnestly pray the God of all Grace to sustain them in this their time of great trial.

MARRIED,

On Thursday evening, at the bride's residence, by the Rev. H. C. Cheatham, Mr. LEWIS D. BURKLOW, of Fayetteville, N. C., and Miss MARY E. SIVEY of Nansemond county, Va.

WARREN, N. C.,

WHITE SULPHUR
AND CHALYBEATE SPRINGS.

THE UNDERSIGNED has the satisfaction of announcing to the public, that he has leased these celebrated Springs, and that they will be opened for the reception of visitors on the first day of June ensuing. His arrangements are of that complete and extensive character, that he will be able to accommodate a large number of guests and to offer greater attractions than usual to those who may visit

This pleasant and healthful resort.

No trouble or expense will be spared to render his patrons comfortable and satisfied.

The grounds are elegantly laid off, and the buildings are enlarged and improved.

He will have ICE, MILK, VEGETABLES, and all the substantials and delicacies of the table in profusion.

An ICE CREAM SALOON and SODA FOUNTAIN will be attached to the establishment, where those refreshments, as well as CONFECTIONERY, Fruits &c., can be always obtained.

The bar will be supplied with the finest liquors, and a billiard saloon and bowling alley, for amusement and exercise, be at the disposal of visitors.

The Medicinal Properties

Of the Sulphur water have been amply tested during many years by a large number of visitors, and its beneficial results strikingly displayed in the cure or relief of Dyspepsia, Affections of the Liver, Jaundice, Diseases of the Skin, &c.

Another Spring has been discovered in the vicinity of the establishment, an accurate scientific analysis of which (given below) proves that it is a valuable Chalybeate. It is a mild and gentle tonic, and in the opinion of the physicians who have examined it, and witnessed its effects in some cases during several seasons, must prove beneficial in Atonic Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Uterine, Nervous and Neuralgic Affections connected with Debility; and of especial service to persons living in malarious regions of country, whose blood has been robbed of its normal proportion of iron by repeated attacks of malarial fevers.

Persons travelling on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad will always find a line of stages, under the management of Mr. Granger, ready for their accommodation at Warrenton Depot. There will be a daily mail from Warrenton to the Springs.

Trial of Major Jno. H. Gee.

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY.

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY.

MONDAY, May 14, 1866.

B. F. King, Raleigh.—Was in the Confederate army nearly 3 years. I was a drummer at Salisbury—of Freeman's Battallion—was there when the prisoners of war were there. I beat the sick-call at the guard house at 9 o'clock, about 20 steps from the prison gate.

I have seen the prisoners take in pies and cakes some 5 or 6 times. I was on duty there a good many times. They carried them in by the gate near headquarters. Major Gee was sitting on the porch 25 or 30 yards from the men who were carrying in provisions.

One day I wanted to get a pass signed to go in the prison. I forget the month. I went to Maj. Gee; he was talking to a gentleman. A man came out and said the white prisoners were imposing on the black ones. Maj. Gee told him to go and have it stopped immediately.

When the prisoners went away I saw some persons give them coffee, bread, &c., at the depot. Women gave them, and some men.

On the day of the outbreak I was on the train, heard guns, an order was given to get off the train and run to the garrison as quick as possible. I got to the prison, heard another gun; the last one when half the regiment were there.

I got up on the parapet, on the south side.—It was about 300 yards from the fence to the depot. Heard the last of the firing when I was 10 steps south-east from the fence. I heard two guns when I was at the depot. Heard the last cannon when I was running. It took me not 10 minutes to run. I ran as fast as I could. When I got on the parapet, there were some of the 68th N. C., that wanted to shoot. I heard some officers remark that if there were any more shots, they would punish the men; not to shoot. The officers remained there when I left.

I saw Maj. Gee at headquarters when I went around. I saw two officers. I thought it was Major Gee and Col. Yellowley, coming East from the S. W. corner, about middle way. They were ordering men to get down.

I heard some men, a good many, cursing Major Gee, and they said he said he would shoot a man if he fired any more. This was a quarter ot an hour afterwards.

Sometimes we drew one third of a pound and sometimes one fourth of a pound of pickled beef. I have been without rations for a day. If my folks had'nt sent me things to eat I couldn't have got along. I was at Salisbury 13 months. I drew 1 pr. pants, 1 jacket, 1 shirt, 1 pr. drawers, 1 cap and 2 prs. socks while I was there.

We sometimes got enough wood for two messes. The band was organized before the prisoners came. We had an old tent, torn,—we fixed it up as well as we could, with some logs, and fixed up a chimney.

I have acted as sentinel—not to let any persons come over the dead line—to keep a good look-out—to halt them three times.

I have seen police parties working inside.

Cross-Examined.—The day the prisoners were sent away, they were giving provisions to the sick, about 200. There were 3000 prisoners there. I saw some dozen people giving these things to them—hot coffee, &c.

To Court.—These people were citizens there, Mrs. Carncross and others. Mrs. Johnson was one.

James C. Turner, Salisbury.—Been a civil engineer for thirty years. Have been a merchant since June.

Capt. Fuqua came to get my opinion in regard to the elevation of the prison above a small creek, about a quarter of a mile from it—I said about 60 feet, but afterwards took a level and went down and found a difference of a foot or two. I think 61. I went to the prison and saw Maj. Gee, and he seemed anxious to know if it was practicable to get the water from the creek. It was suggested to erect a tank and have the water forced up by a pump. I told them that the bottom of the tank would have to be 60 feet above the lowest part of the prison. I thought it was impracticable with the means at command. It might have been forced up by a 20 horse power steam engine. There were no water pipes at Salisbury; I dont think wooden pipes would have answered. I dont know that they could have got the engine.

I saw some ladies who brought down coffee and other provisions. Mrs. Shaver was among them, and others. I myself, and other parties, took what they had and distributed among the sick. The ladies were a little timid about going among the men; so I did. There were officers and a guard there. I was not interfered with. I went up to the cars and handed it in to them. I poured the coffee into their cups, and would go back and get more.

I remember a meeting in the Courthouse for getting provisions either for the prisoners or army. I remember Mr. Meares giving 10 bbls. of flour, and other citizens. I remember Major Myers borrowed flour while the prisoners were there. I have never known such a scarcity before or since. I lived 300 yards from prison, and it was with the greatest difficulty I could get a load of wood. We had to go out into the country to get provisions, and steal it in. We had to go out without the waggons. They took everything to the prison first. The citizens grumbled a good deal. They blamed the authorities very much.

I have seen prisoners on the wood train carrying provisions.

One petition was signed by the Mayor and others, protesting against the sending any more prisoners there and to have those removed who were there. It was with Maj. Gee's consent and co-operation; another one I signed myself.

No relief came from the Secretary of war; a request to Gen. Gardner was not successful

I had conversations with Maj. Gee at his office. He complained of a want of provisions and shelter for the prisoners. His concern seemed to be for the prisoners alone, that other people would take care of the soldiers.

I went on the parapet after the outbreak; there was a commotion inside; some said there would be a break on the front gate. There was a command from the officers not to fire.

The remark to fire on them was loud, but this command was given and there was no firing.

I called on Major Gee when he came, and invited him to call at my house. He declined. I believe he never went into a citizen's house while he was there. He remarked that his duties demanded his entire attention; he was fearful of an outbreak. He was in very feeble health. Remarked by a good many that he would not live long.

Cross-Examined.—I don't know what prevented the building of tanks. Either water rams or a steam engine would have been required.

There was a train load of cars. They were going toward Raleigh. I have never known provisions given them at any other time.

Re-Direct.—I don't think the water could have been pumped up by hand to any advantage. I gave the officers the impression that it would not be feasible with the means at their command.

Court adjourned.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Mrs. Frank I Wilson will take a number of boarders,—members of the Convention, and others. Mrs. W's house has the reputation of being one of the most desirable boarding-places in the City.

Briggs, Dodd & Hicks, Builders, have formed a copartnership. See advertisement. The old firm of Briggs & Dodd was one of the most reliable and enterprising in our community. The new firm will prove equally so, doubtless.

UNIVERSITY.—Hon. Zeb. B. Vance has consented to deliver the annual Address before the two Literary Societies of the University at the approaching Commencement.

Most of the early planted cotton seed in this county is turning out very badly. This is owing more, it is said, to the rather cool weather we have had since the seed was put in the ground, than to the quality of the seed. Many planters are plowing up and re-planting.—Wadesboro' Argus.

PARDONED.—The following citizens of this State have been pardoned by the President, under the first and thirteenth sections of the Proclamation of amnesty, viz: Gens. Bradley T. Johnson and W. R. Cox, and Messrs. H. K. Burgwyn, J. G. King, W. F. McKesson, Alfred Williams, J. G. Cook, A. M. Lewis, W. B. Rodman, J. W. Hall, G. G. Lynch and Geo. W. Thompson.

SPLENDID LITHOGRAPHS.—We are indebted to our friend Henry D. Coley, of the North Carolina Book-Store, for magnificent lithographic portraits, large size, of Gens. Lee and Jackson. These are both admirable likenesses of those great men. We make our best acknowledgments for the gift, and commend the North Carolina Book-Store as a liberal "institution." We hope soon to see it rivalling its former success and usefulness.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 10th., 1866.

MESSRS EDITORS:—A correspondent writing to the "Sentinel," under the nom de plume of "Elttab," states that, "by appointment, the class that was graduated ten years ago will re-unite under the apron strings of their Alma Mater" at the ensuing commencement. From the familiarity which your correspondent displays with housewifery metaphors, I presume he is a married man; which certainly is a circumstance in his favor. Nevertheless, he is mistaken in regard to the fact stated. The class which graduated in '56 adopted a resolution to meet at the University at the Commencement of 1865. The reason for selecting '65 was in order to meet the class of '55, which had resolved to return in '65; and if I am not mistaken, the class of '57 resolved to meet the two former classes in '65, that we might have a grand time.

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN, AND ABANDONED LANDS,
RALEIGH, N. C. May 4th. 1866.

CIRCULAR,
No. 3.

In view of the fact that the Cholera has already made its appearance in at least two places on the North American coast, (New York and Halifax,) it is deemed advisable that such measures be at once adopted as can have any influence in warding off this disease, or curtailing its destructive tendency, if it should unfortunately make its appearance in this State.

When freedmen are collected in camps or settlements without corporation limits, officers of the Bureau will assume full control over the sanitary condition of all camps and buildings occupied by them, and will exercise the right to organize them into gangs for the performance of the necessary policing, &c, to keep the camps and buildings so occupied at all times in as clean and pure a condition as circumstances will admit of.

When freedmen live within city or town limits, officers of the Bureau will co-operate with the civil authorities in carrying out all ordinances calculated to improve the sanitary condition of such places.

All dwelling houses should have good ventilation, and such drainage as will prevent water from settling about the walls or under the floors. The space between the floor of the building and the ground should be perfectly open to allow a free circulation of air. They should be thoroughly white-washed inside and out, and the floors and furniture be kept neat and clean.—All articles of bedding, &c., should be kept scrupulously clean, and on every fair day be taken out and aired in the sun. Articles of clothing, bedding, &c., that have become useless should be destroyed, by burning them. Nothing should be tolerated about the premises not in use or useful.

Vegetable and refuse matter of every description, the decomposition of which may be injurious to health, should be immediately removed or destroyed. Over-crowding in dwellings should in all cases be discountenanced and prohibited.

Too much attention cannot be given to the condition of privies or sinks—they should be emptied frequently and the filth removed to a proper distance, or, where this cannot be done, they should be well covered with fresh earth every night. Wells should never be dug in the vicinity of privies or other accumulations of filth, or in any low or marshy places where they may be overflown during heavy rains.

The condition and quality of food should be carefully inspected. The food of that class of dependents who are fed by the Government should be inspected previous to being issued.—The people should be strictly cautioned to keep the surface of the body clean by a free use of soap and water, and a frequent change of under clothing.

The Assistant Superintendent will, in company with the Surgeon on duty in his District, make a thorough inspection of all camps and houses of dependent freedmen under his jurisdiction, once a week, and see that the proper sanitary measures are adopted and enforced. He will report the result of such inspections on the 1st and 15th of each month through the Superintendent to these Headquarters. Medical officers will make a similar report, including the sanitary measures adopted by the civil and military authorities within their sub-districts, to the Surgeon-in-Chief of the District. Medical officers are requested to bear in mind that much depends on the influence they may exercise over those among whom their professional duties constantly call them, in correcting all matters that relate to the public health.

ALEXANDRIA May 13.—At the conclusion of Gen. Wise's lecture at the Orphan Asylum last night, Senator Saulsbury, of Delaware, advocated the upholding of the President in opposition to the Radicals. The speech was warmly applauded.

From Washington.

Indictment of Mr. Davis and his trial—The Postoffice Bill and its proposed Amendment—No Colorado Veto Yet—Postoffice Decapitations.

(Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.)

WASHINGTON, May 12.

The indictment of Jefferson Davis by the grand jury at Norfolk, and setting his case for trial at Richmond, in June, is in strict accordance with the programme agreed upon here. Judge Underwood is expected in the city to-night, with the copy of the indictment. The trial of Mr. Davis will now undoubtedly take place at as early a day in the June session as possible, and will of course be conducted with all due formalities, but as all arrangements necessary to secure a conviction have been made, the result may be easily predicted. It is the settled purpose of certain men in high position here to have Mr. Davis executed, if it is within the range of possibility, and they are not slow in asserting that the people of the North will never allow the interposition of Executive clemency.

The protracted debate on the amendment to the post office appropriation bill was unexpectedly brought to a close in the Senate this afternoon, several Senators, who had intended to speak, coming to the conclusion that it "was as well not." The vote on the amendment must not be taken as a test, as at least half a dozen of those who voted against it have expressed their willingness to vote for a separate bill restricting the President's power to remove from office.

Contrary to general expectation, the veto of the Colorado bill was not sent to the Senate to-day, but there is little doubt that it will be received on Monday.

The President has got the official axe to work in good earnest on the recusants from his policy. The appointment clerks in the general postoffice have been extremely busy this week in making out lists of the decapitated. There are thousands of postmasters whose appointments are not brought before the Senate at all, so that, even if the bill of Mr. Henderson should pass, the President's power in this respect cannot be infringed upon.

Report from Gens. Fullerton and Steedman —Withdrawal of Officers of the Freedmen's Bureau Recommended.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Generals Steedman and Fullerton, commissioners appointed by the President to investigate the operation of the Freedmen's Bureau in the Southern States, have reported as to Virginia and North Carolina.—They give instances of the dishonesty and arbitrary power exercised by some of the officers and agents of the bureau in making arrests, imposing fines and inflicting punishment in disregard of the legal laws, and especially of the statute of limitation, thus creating a prejudice against the government. They therefore recommend the withdrawal of the officers of the bureau, and the transference to officers commanding the troops of such duties as it may still be necessary to perform in connection with the freedmen.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The news continues very warlike. As regards Austria and Italy there are active preparations on both sides. Great uneasiness exists in the various Exchanges.

The British Ministry have refused to regard the close vote on the Reform bill as equivalent to a defeat.

Mr. Gladstone announced in the House of Commons that the Franchise bill would be presided on, but the bill for the Reconstruction of Seats would be introduced on the 7th, so that both might be considered together. In reply to an inquiry if the Government would stand by the bill, he said, "so long as the bill stands, we stand; if it falls, we fall."

Liberal papers rejoice that the issue is now plain, and that the Liberal members must now face the pure and simple question, without the protection of an evasive amendment.

LATER.

NEW YORK, May 13.—The German question continues warlike. The relations of Austria and Italy are decidedly menacing. Both governments deny aggressive designs, but both are represented as vigorously preparing for war.

It is asserted that the Italian Government has called out 15,000 men.

The Austrian corps in Venitia is computed at 16,000.

The London Times says, there can be no doubt that Italy desires war as the only means of extrication from an exceedingly false and difficult situation.

NEW ENGLANDERS POCKETING SLAVES.—Hon. Isaac Davis, of Worcester, Mass., some ten years ago, sat one day at an abolition meeting, in that fiery little town. The speakers were earnest in denouncing the sin of slavery, of making merchandise of men, and of receiving the gain of such a trade; these practices were an abhorrence to them. Mr. Davis arose. He told over by name the men who were present and who were directors and stockholders in a certain bank in town, and read them a letter from a lawyer in Charleston, S. C., who had recovered a judgment there for a sum of money due to the bank. The letter went on to state that they had seized, in execution upon this judgment, the slaves of the judgment debtor, and they were—two families of slaves—then advertised for sale to pay the judgment of the bank. These directors and stockholders were thus, to the extent of their interest in the bank, the owners of the slaves; the negroes were to be sold at their order, and the proceeds would be paid over to them. He then pleaded with them to come forward and give up each his share of the claim, that some, at least, of these negroes might not be sold; that, at least, one family might be saved from separation. But, true to the old Massachusetts instinct, when these disagreeable questions came up, and these beautiful sentiments could not be indulged in without affecting their pockets, the meeting subsided.

BILL ARP'S LETTERS.—The admirers of the "Bill Arp" letters will soon have an opportunity to read them in book form. They are now in the hands of the printers, and will be ready for the public in about amonth. John Mullaly, of of the Metropolitan Record, is the publisher. The book will be profusely illustrated, and will have a steel portrait of the author.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Internal Revenue Bureau, acting under the general law, requires all citizens of the South to render income returns for the year 1864, as well as for that of 1865. Some of the ex-rebel officers, residing in Alexandria, Virginia, are startled by the call of the Assessors upon them to furnish the required statements, and are surprised that the rations received by them in the Confederate army are estimated at 40 cents. One of them expressed his readiness to pay his tax in Confederate, but this was, of course, declined.

An Extraordinary Statement in Regard to Rheumatism and Pleurisy.

Peter Vaden, Esq., Dinwiddie county, Va., (Nov. 6, 1865) says: "In August 1857, my wife, aged 66 years, was taken ill with what the doctor called a Bilious Rheumatism affecting her whole system; rendering her entirely helpless, so much so, that she had to be lifted and fed as an infant, for the pace of three months, suffering the most excruciating pain; her hands drawn out of shape and stiff, so that she could not use them. After all other remedies failed, in January, 1858, I was advised to get the SOUTHERN HEPATIC PILLS for her. She used the Pills strictly according to the directions accompanying them, and we soon discovered a change for the better, and in one month's using she was well, and continued so up to the present time; has become fleshy, cheerful, and as active as one could be of her age. One of my servants was taken with a violent attack of Bilious Pleurisy. I gave him those Pills, and in about ten days he was up and at his work; said that he felt as well as he ever did, and has continued well ever since.—Another was taken with Pleurisy. I gave the Pills, and she was well and at her work in ten days after she commenced using them. My Doctor's bill has been heretofore from $175 to 200 per year. I have used them in my family, which consists of eighteen white and colored, and have not called in a doctor during the year. This is a great saving. They certainly are the best family medicine ever discovered. After a fair trial I can recommend them as such."

A NEW AND GRAND EPOCH IN MEDICINE!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his exraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggiel's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is here announced that Maggiel's Bilious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton Street, New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box. Sold by all Druggists in Raleigh.

MAGGIEL'S CHILLS AND FEVER PILLS!

Maggiel's Fever and Ague Pills!!

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

A BOON TO THE SICK AND THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

These Life-giving remedies are now given publicly to the world. For over a quarter of a century of private practice the ingredients in these

LIFE-GIVING PILLS!

Have been used with the greatest success. Their mission is not only to prevent disease, but to cure. They search out the various maladies by which the patient is suffering and re-invigorate the failing system. To the aged and infirm a few doses of these valuable PILLS will prove to be

A VERY FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH,

For in every case they add new life and vitality, and restore the waning energies to their pristine state.—To the young and middle-aged they will prove most invaluable, as a ready, specific and sterling medicine. Here is a dream realized, that Ponce-de Leon sought for three hundred years ago, and never found. He looked for a fountain that would restore the old to vigor and make youth ever

An Eternal Spring!

It was left for this day and hour to realize the dream, and show in one glorious fact, that magic that made it fair.

THESE FAMOUS REMEDIES

Cannot stay the flight of years, but they can force back and hold aloof, diseases that might triumph over the aged and the young. Let none hesitate then, but seize the favorable opportunity the offers. When taken as prescribed—

FOR BILLIOUS DISORDERS

Nothing can be more productive of cure than these Pills. Their almost magic influence is felt at once; and the usual concomitants of this most distressing disease are removed. These remedies are made from the purest

VEGETABLE COMPOUNDS.

They will not harm the most delicate female, and can be given with good effect in prescribed doses to the youngest babe.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS

And all eruptions of the skin, the SALVE is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil!

DR. MAGGIEL'S PILLS.

Invariably cure the following Diseases.

Asthma,
Bowel Complaints,
Coughs,
Colds,
Chest Diseases,
Costiveness,
Dyspepsia,
Diarrhœa,
Dropsy,
Debility,
Female Complaints,
Fever and Ague
Headache,
Indigestion,
Influenza,
Inflammation,
Inward weakness,
Liver Complaint,
Lowness of Spirits,
Ringworm,
Rheumatism,
Salt Rheum,
Scalds,
Skin Diseases.

☞ Notice.—None genuine without the engraved trade mark around each pot or box, signed by DR. J. MAGGIEL, 43 Fulton st., New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

☞ Sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States and Canadas—at 25 cents per box or pot.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you are sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula, or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, also Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints, and Heart Diseases. Try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures those diseases.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound "Sarsaparilla," and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. We can only assure the sick, that we offer them the best alterative which we know how to produce, and we have reason to believe, it is by far the most effectual purifier of the blood yet discovered by any body.

Ayers Cherry Pectoral is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues. The world knows them.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.

COTTON GINS,

MANUFACTURED BY

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.,

COLUMBUS, GA.

WE have received the manufacture of Cotton Gins in this city, and will be prepared to fill orders by 1st June next. As we shall not be, as heretofore, represented by traveling agents, parties wishing our Gins, will confer a favor by sending in their orders at an early day. As owing to the demand, we shall be unable to keep a stock in the hands of our local agents, as it was our practice before the war. All business transactions being now reduced to cash, our sales will be made on the basis of ready pay.

Our Gins are too well known to require any special notice or commendation; we believe they are unrivalled in the chief points of excellence which go to make up a superior machine, namely: Speed light draught and good sample.

Our DOUBLE CYLINDER GINS will be found superior to the single cylinder, when parties have steam or good water power, to give them the necessary speed. In all cases when this can be done, we recommend them in preference to the single cylinder. If, however, indifferent or insufficient power is used, they will not do as well as the single Gin.

Messrs. DEROSSET & CO., Wilmington, N. C., are our general agents for the State of North Carolina.

W. G. CLEMONS, BROWN & CO.

Columbus, Ga., April 24 '66.

We will give prompt attention to orders for the above celebrated Gins from any part of the State. The price is five dollars (5) per Saw at the Factory, and five dollars for each Gin will only be charged to purchasers for transportation to this point.

COPARTNERSHIP.

NEWBERN, N. C., November 1st, 1865.

WE HAVE THIS DAY FORMED A COPARTnership under the name and style of

Whitford, Dill & Co.,

for the transaction of a Shipping and General

Commission Business, in this Town, West side Craven Street, on old County Wharf.

To the sale of Cotton, Naval Stores, Tobacco, Lumber, Staves, Shingles, Corn, and all kinds of Produce and Merchandise, and also to the sale and purchase of Real Estate and State and other Stocks, we will give our personal attention.

We are Agents for Murry's North Carolina Semi Weekly Line of Steamships, between Newbern and New York, and for Sailing Vessels for Baltimore Philadelphia, and other ports in the United States and for different ports in the West Indies. Thus it will be seen that we are furnished by our own vessels with the amplest facilities for the speedy transportation of Freight and Passengers. But in addition to these, there is a weekly line of Ocean Steamships on the same route, and a tri-weekly line of Steamers by inland route through Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal to Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York; hence Merchants and Shippers entrusting the transportation of their freight to us, can rely with confidence on its speedy transit.

☞ We will make liberal advances on consignments.

All letters addressed to us on the subject of freight, or on any other business, will be promptly answered

GEORGE W. DILL,
WM. C. WHITFORD.

THE WATCHMAN;

AN AMERICAN FAMILY JOURNAL

OF

Literature, and News, Independent in Politics and Religion.

Office, No. 119 Nassau Street, N. Y.

It is a large quarto of eight pages, with six columns to the page, elegantly printed on heavy white paper.

You ought to subscribe for THE WATCHMAN:

1. Because in its Religious Department there is no Sectarianism.

2. Because in its Literary Department there is no Immorality.

3. Because in its Political Department there is no Partisanship.

4. Because in its News Department there is no Partiality.

5. Because many of the best minds in America are liberally employed upon its columns.

6. Because it gives the latest Ecclesiastical Intelligence, Catholic and Protestant, Foreign and Domestic.

7. Because it gives a synopsis of all the important doings of Congress, together with General News.

8. Because it gives the latest reliable Reports of the Markets.

9. Because it gives full Reports of important Lectures and Discourses.

10. Because it has something for Scholars and Plain People, for Artists and Farmers, for Statesmen and Mechanics, for Women and Children, for Saints and Sinners.

11. Because it is a fearless independent Journal of Progress, belonging to no Party, no Sect, no Church, no Clique, no Section—but to the Whole Country and all its People.

12. Because where a family can take only one paper, it is designed to make this come nearer supplying all its wants than any other Journal in America.

TERMS: $3 a year; $2 for six months; single copies, 10 cents.
